

SUMMER SCHOOL ON MIGRATION AND DEVELOPMENT

LIST OF SPEAKERS

(draft February 2021)

Brenda Yeoh

is Raffles Professor of Social Sciences, Department of Geography, as well as Director, Humanities and Social Science Research Office of Deputy President (Research & Technology), National University of Singapore (NUS). She is also the Research Leader of the Asian Migration Cluster at the Asia Research Institute, NUS.

<https://ari.nus.edu.sg/people/prof-brenda-yeoh-2/>

Eva Janská

is assistant professor at the Faculty of Science, Department of Social Geography and Regional Development, Charles University and also a member of the Geographic migration center. Main research interests of Eva are international migration, migration policy and integration/adaptation of migrants into majority society.

https://www.natur.cuni.cz/geography/department-of-social-geography-and-regional-development/ejanska?set\_language=en

Fatima El Diasty

is United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees UNHCR Senior Protection Cluster Coordinator with twenty years of experience of work in Ethiopia, Libya, Tunisia, Jordan, Syria, Yemen, Zimbabwe and other missions.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/fatima-eldiasty-50b613b/?originalSubdomain=et>

Luciana Gandini,

is a Senior Researcher at the Institute of Legal Studies at the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM) in the field of sociology of law. She is the Coordinator of the University Seminar on Internal Displacement, Migration, Exile and Repatriation (SUDIMER), which collects and promotes research on migration and human mobility at UNAM.

<https://www.migrationpolicy.org/about/staff/luciana-gandini>

Marie Price

is a Professor of Geography and International Affairs at George Washington University where she has taught since 1990. A Latin American and migration specialist, her studies have explored human migration's impact on development and social change. She is President of the American Geographical Society and a non-resident fellow of the Migration Policy Institute.

<https://geography.columbian.gwu.edu/marie-price>

Petra Ezzeddine

is an assistant professor at Department of General Anthropology and Department of Gender Studies of the Faculty of Humanities, Charles University. She is a Research Fellow in the Global Conflicts and Local Interactions program at the Czech Academy of Science. In her research activities, she focuses mainly on gender problems in migration and transnational maternity.

<https://fhs.cuni.cz/FHSENG-822.html>

Tanja Bastia

teaches international development at the University of Manchester. Her research focuses on social inequalities, migration and space and she is currently developing two new areas of research: migration and ageing, through a project funded by the British Academy and Leverhulme; and migration and cities in the Global South.

<https://www.research.manchester.ac.uk/portal/tanja.bastia.html>

Berti Olino

is research assistant at the Canada Excellence Research Chair (CERC) in Migration and Integration, Ryerson University, Toronto. His research interests focus on refugees, transnationalism, diasporic communities and media. He has taught at the School of Social and Community Development at George Brown College in Toronto, and at the Universidad Catolica Andres Bello, in Venezuela.

<https://www.ryerson.ca/cerc-migration/People/researchers/berti-olinto/>

Dušan Drbohlav

is Professor in the Department of Social Geography and Regional Development, Faculty of Science at the Charles University in Prague and a leader of the GEOMIGRACE (Geographic Migration Centre) research team. He specializes in researching international migration issues and immigrants' integration into host societies, and participates in both domestic and international research projects.

https://www.natur.cuni.cz/geography/department-of-social-geography-and-regional-development/drbohlav?set\_language=en

Eric Opoku Ware

is founder of Sahara Hustlers Association, a non-governmental organization based in Ghana, that's campaigning against irregular migration and human trafficking especially from Africa to Europe. He has been active in many education and media raise-awareness activities on both local and international level.

<https://saharahustlers.com/team/eric-opoku-ware/>

Jan Schroth

is consultant and migration policy expert for the OECD. He worked for twenty years on integration, research and raise awareness project in IOM, UNHCR or People in Need. He is also journalist, editor of bulletin Slovo focused on integration, and member of Datalyrics.org project.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/jan-schroth-5b876769/?originalSubdomain=cz>

Josef Novotný

is assistant professor at the Department of Social Geography and Regional Development, Faculty of Science, Charles University. His research and teaching are focused on development studies, economic geography and population geography.

https://www.natur.cuni.cz/geography/department-of-social-geography-and-regional-development/pepino?set\_language=en

Michal Vašečka

is sociologist by background. He focuses his interests on issues of ethnicity, race, and migration studies, as well as populism, extremism, social movements, and civil society. As an Associate Professor Michal operates at the Bratislava International School of Liberal Arts (BISLA) and at the Pan-European University in Bratislava, Slovakia.

<https://www.bisla.sk/academic-staff-profile/michal-vasecka>

Salim Murad

is Director of Gymnasium of the Memory of the Nation and teacher at New York University Prague. His main research topics involve ethnic stereotypes in Czech advertising and media and migration. He is a course coordinator and lecturer of the university's teaching module in the European Union MA Program in Migration and Intercultural Relations.

<https://www.nyu.edu/prague/academics/faculty.html#M>

Tomáš Sobotka

works at the Global Wittgenstein Centre for Demography and Human Capital. He leads the Vienna Institute of Demography research group on Comparative European Demography. He studies a broad range of topics related to fertility and family changes, including childlessness, fertility measurement, fertility intentions and assisted reproduction, as well as migration and population trends in Europe.

<http://www.wittgensteincentre.org/en/staff/member/sobotka.htm>