

SUMMER SCHOOL ON MIGRATION STUDIES 2026

August 30th – September 5th

Prague, Faculty of Science, Charles University

Geographic Migration Centre, a research institute affiliated with the Department of Social Geography and Regional Development, Faculty of Science, Charles University, and IOM International Organization for Migration Czechia cordially invites students and young professionals to Prague, for the Summer School on Migration Studies.

Jan Masaryk Foundation, United Nations Information Centre Prague UNIC and UNHCR Czech Republic are partners of the program.

The program builds on previous editions of summer schools organized by IOM and the Geographic Migration Centre since 2009 with different partners - IMISCOE, CzechAid, OSCE, UNHCR, US Embassy in Prague, Ministry of Interior of the Czech Republic etc.

Previous years were attended in total by more than one thousand students and professionals from around one hundred countries who listened to lectures presented by e.g.:

Joaquín Arango, Professor of Sociology at the Complutense University of Madrid

Philippe De Bruycker, Université Libre de Bruxelles

Nadya Jaworsky, Harvard University and Masaryk University Brno

Ronald Skeldon, University of Sussex

Yvonne Riaño, University of Neuchatel

Heinz Fassmann, University of Vienna

Rinus Penninx, University of Amsterdam

Adrian Bailey, Hong Kong Baptist University

Marie Price, GWU, President of the American Geographical Society and many other distinguished experts from academia, international and non-governmental organizations (UNHCR, WHO, La Strada, Charitas, etc.) as well as migrants' organizations and communities (European Congress of Ukrainians etc.).

The course has been organized physically at Charles University, one of the oldest European universities founded in 1348. Experienced and respected scholars and practitioners participate in the Summer School while delivering lectures and/or leading seminars, workshops, and panel discussions on issues related to migration. It is examined from political, economic, sociocultural, demographic, development, geographical, and other perspectives.
